Central Alberta Indigenous AA Goals/Preamble

- Provides contact email of indigenous AA members, activities, and meetings in North America. Invites unity within AA and all cultures
- Provides information traditional/cultural means of representation from the AA group and how to start your own Indigenous AA group or meeting.
- Access to "Daily Readings From the AA Lodge" CD or written manuscript
- Encourages the unity of AA Indigenous fellowship with all AA groups

Purpose

1. To help our Indigenous people obtain sobriety through the 12 steps and 12 traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous (AA).
2. To be a helping hand to Alcoholics Anonymous General Service Office, New York, NY and Alcoholics Anonymous World Services, New York, NY as an information source and referral service.
3. To provide traditional/cultural means of representation from the AA individual/group level to the AA World Service level.
- 4 To induce Native American Indian AA groups and peoples to work closely and confidently with the AA General Service Office and AA World Service.
5. To support the Indigenous people in obtaining sobriety through their own culture.
6. To provide service in concert with the Native American's traditional gathering(s).
